Gateshead Post 17/03/1983 reported: There were two wood plaques in St. Paul's – one giving the names of the fallen from 1914-18, and another for 1939-45. The church was made redundant and the plaques were removed because they had no value and were subject to wood rot. Mr. Padgett was seeking to create a Roll of Honour using names he had been given by Rev. G. Roscoe of Sunderland, who had been involved in clearing out the church. A Sussex firm was contacted to create a new Roll of Honour which would be placed in St. Cuthbert's."
Can anybody take up this story and tell us what happened to the new Roll of Honour?
