See also the Parish Page for each place for other relevant information.
See “Every Name A Story” for war graves, family headstones and other sources of individual information.

We realise that things are changing all the time. Old memorials are being removed, or restored. New memorials are being created. We rely heavily on the public for all information.

Items in green bold show that information is needed. Any help would be gratefully received and acknowledged.

A note from Anne McNair, Casework Officer for the Statutory Advisory Committee for the Church of England Church Buildings Council, Advisory Board for Redundant Churches, states:

“West rose window. Apparently, the glazing in the west end was a parish First World War memorial, devised by Wood. All that survives is the west rose window which was installed in 1917, dedicated to Charles Stuart, 6th Marquis of Londonderry, who died 1915. The window was dedicated by his daughter. There is also supposed to be a drawing of the plan at the rear of the Church The glass was designed by Burlison and Grylls and was inspired by late Flemish late medieval design. (This information has not been confirmed by the Advisory Board for Redundant Churches)”.

An unidentified newspaper report tells us:
There were two wood plaques – one giving the names of the fallen from 1914-18, and another for 1939-45. The church was made redundant and the plaques were removed because they had no value and were subject to woodrot. Mr. Padgett was seeking to create a Roll of Honour using names he had been given by Rev. G. Roscoe of Sunderland, who had been involved in clearing out the church. A Sussex firm was contacted to create a new Roll of Honour which would be placed in St.Cuthbert’s. Can anybody take up this story and tell us what happened to the new Roll of Honour?
