

6 Nov. 1918.

Dear Sergt. Munro,

At last I have an opportunity to write you.

First I want you to express to the boys of Kd7. how sorry I was to leave them.

They worked well whilst I was with them, they are good boys and was very proud to be with them.

You will notice by the above address that I am in Scotland.

I had the operation on my ear and am improving every day. Unfortunately the hearing on that side has gone & I am left deaf on one side.

Give my best wishes to Epl Sloan, Epl Strachan,
Robinson, Thompson, Oliver, O'Neill, and all the rest of the boys.

I shall be ever so glad to hear from you & from any of your family. I let me know of others
and will try to do so with my dear Ben & Susan & send you love

Yours affectionately

RECEIVED

A Memory of Brig.-Gen. R. B. BRADFORD.

Stirring Appeal to his Men on Eve of Action.

Extract from Press.

Brigadier-General R. B. Bradford, V.C., M.C., of Darlington, who was recently killed in action while talking to his men and cheering them under trying conditions, delivered an inspiring appeal to them in his last speech to the men.

Addressing them as comrades, he asked them to put their implicit trust ~~and confidence in him,~~ and to look upon him not only as their brigadier but as their friend. By the help of God he would try and lead them to the best of his ability, and let them remember that their interests were his interests. As they knew, in a few days they were going to attack. Their powers of endurance were going to be tested; they must not fail them. "Above all," he urged, "pray more. Things are wrought by prayer more than the world dreams of. It is God alone who can give us the victory and bring us through this battle safely."

General Bradford was only 25 years of age when he gallantly met his death.

Abide with me! fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me!
