See also the Parish Page for each place for other relevant information.

See "Every Name A Story" for war graves, family headstones and other sources of individual information.

We realise that things are changing all the time. Old memorials are being removed, or restored. New memorials are being created. We rely heavily on the public for all information.

Items in green bold show that information is needed. Any help would be gratefully received and acknowledged.

The unveiling of this memorial appears in the Hexham Courant 21/8/1920. It does not say which church, but N13.02 refers to a tablet in St. Michael's Church of Hoptonwood stone, the Faculty for which was not obtained until after 1939-45. This plaque is of marble. Was this a fore-runner of N13.02, replaced after 1939-45?
